Celebrate Peace Day in YOUR School on September 20th

Join students around the world in honoring the United Nations International Day of Peace!

Students around the world take action for peace during the United Nations International Day of Peace Student Observance on Friday, September 20, 2019.

HERE'S HOW YOUR SCHOOL CAN PARTICIPATE on September 20:

Try one or more of these actions or create your own peacebuilding activities for your classroom or whole school. Find more suggestions at www.buildthepeace.org.

- Chicago for Peace Campaign
Students show the world the true heart of Chicago.
- Peace Breathing Exercise
Students learn to be at peace in order to build the peace.
- Climate Action for Peace
Students put the U.N. Peace Day theme into action.
- Build the Peace Pledge
Read, discuss and sign, or write your own. Spanish version of Pledge available on website.

NEXT STEP: LET US KNOW about your activities.

Tell us about your Peace Day experience at: info@peaceschool.org. Photos welcome, too!

41st Anniversary Celebration of Peace Day in Chicago

Some schools may wish to bring students to Daley Plaza on Monday, September 23, 2019 for Chicago's Peace Day Celebration. Bring your Chicago for Peace posters if you do.

Learn about the event at www.buildthepeace.org.

Contact us ASAP if you plan to attend at info@peaceschool.org or 773.248.7959.

Chicago Build the Peace Committee is a committee of The Peace School, a non-profit 501c3 educational organization teaching practices for a peaceful life and world since 1972.
